Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Status

- 1) ☒ Responsive to communication(s) filed on 30 December 2003.
- 2a) ☐ This action is FINAL. 2b) ☒ This action is non-final.
- 3) ☐ Since this application is in condition for allowance except for formal matters, prosecution as to the merits is closed in accordance with the practice under Ex parte Quayle, 1935 C.D. 11, 453 O.G. 213.

DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Sasaki (US Pat. 5,909,846).

The Sasaki reference discloses a source of liquid 60 and a nozzle 67 with an associated dispersal face 80 (see Fig. 11a and 11b), wherein the nozzle is capable of being divided into a multiplicity of zones including an inner-zone with a tertiary aperture, an outer-zone and a mid-zone if one so desires with each zone having its respective flow rates. Furthermore, all introductory and functional statements of intended use have been carefully considered but deemed not to impose any structure on the claims distinguishable over the Sasaki device which is further capable of filling containers with a rolled or stacked absorbent material.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negatived by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 21-28 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Applicant's admitted prior art (see the conventional fill system and method described in the bridging paragraph between pages 1 and 2 of Applicant's specification) in view of Sasaki (supra).

Applicant's admitted prior art discloses a filling method substantially as claimed, but does not disclose a fill nozzle with an associated dispersal face. The Sasaki reference discloses a fill system having a nozzle with an associated dispersal face 80 (as discussed supra) to prevent dripping (see col. 1, lines 59-62). Therefore, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to modify Applicant's admitted prior art system to include a dispersal face on its nozzle in view of the teachings of the Sasaki reference to prevent dripping when the nozzle is not in dispensing mode.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. The Harper, Jr., King, Hennig and Arao et al. references pertain to dispensing nozzles with associated dispersal faces.
